A Learning Ladder for Life

8th February 2024.

Dear Parents and Carers,

We are very excited to be taking part in World Book Day on Thursday 7th March.

This year, to show our love of reading, we will be spreading our celebrations over a whole two weeks of next term. Our celebrations this year include:

Event	Details	Date
Story Writing Competition Yr R, 1 & 2: any length writing Yrs 3 & 4: around 250 words Yrs 5 & 6: around 500 words	One winner from each category will receive a £15 Waterstones gift card. Winners will be announced on WBD by our visiting author.	Launch: Thurs 1st Feb Close: Fri 23rd Feb
 Extreme Reading Challenge	To enter, your child simply needs to: Have a photograph taken of them reading in the most unusual place and upload it to Google Classroom or via message on their Class Dojo page. Our Reading Buddies will award prizes for the most eye-catching photos!	Launch: Fri 23rd Feb. Close: Thurs 7th March
Dress Up Day	Come to school dressed as either your favourite book character or wearing your pyjamas - don't forget to bring a bedtime story!	World Book Day: Thurs 7th March
 Author & Illustrator Visit	We are very lucky to have the author/illustrator, Oliver Brooks visiting South Borough, to share his love of writing and drawing with the children. More details to follow next term...	Thurs 7th March

Please speak with your child's class teacher or message them on Class Dojo if you have any questions about our exciting World Book Day celebrations.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs Watts & Mrs Ford
